NRCC Communications Announces Downtown Advisory Group

*Campaign and Public Affairs Veterans to Work with NRCC for 2010

Washington- Today, the National Republican Congressional Committee (NRCC) announced the formation of its Communications Downtown Advisory Group for the 2010 cycle. The group is comprised of political and public relations veterans who will work with NRCC Communications to exchange news, ideas and strategy from downtown to the hill. Members of the Downtown Advisory Group consist of former campaign operatives, consultants, and public relations experts with specific policy backgrounds on such issues as financial services, card-check, energy, New Media and Hispanic outreach.

"The NRCC communications team couldn't have a better and more talented group of individuals contributing to our efforts," NRCC Communications Director Ken Spain. "Every single one of them brings a great level of knowledge and skill that spans across a broad spectrum of issue areas and political campaigns."

The NRCC Communications Downtown Advisory Group includes:
